Environment

Environment

The air in Pittsburgh has improved with the State's new emission standards. Pittsburgh was voted the most liveable city, and this can be directly credited to our environment.

Some people outside Pittsburgh retain misconceptions of Pittsburgh as an old, dirty steel town. Campaigns like Clean Up Pittsburgh and making people aware of how things actually are will help.

State Dept of Environmental ResourcesBetsy Malleon

Date : 7/8/88

The drought watch is in effect, and Pittsburgh area residents need to do all they can to conserve water

RotaryBill Havranek

Date : 11/7/91

Discussed "Oakmont Beautification" which includes improving the water supply and outlawing outdoor burning.

Dow Chemical CompanyBruce Williams

Date : 5/22/88

Discussed what is being done on a federal level with respect to hazardous chemical spills, and what needs to be done when an accident occurs

Benedum CenterCarlinda Dickey

Date : 5/17/90

Discussed what it takes to be an environmentally safe community.

Vietnam Outreach ProgramDavid McPeak

U.S. Geological SurveyDavid Richards

Date : 12/14/89

Talked about the need to treat and/or test your well water. Also discussed the need for recycling and the sewage problem.

RotaryDr. Manny Luthra

Date : 11/2/90

Discussed exploitation of innocent people by the media, single parent families, smoking-human addiction, excessive use of the television, waste, Preserve Planet Earth, lessen emphasis on "looking good" and increase emphasis on "being good."

Whitehall BoroughEd Reddy

Date : 12/13/89

Talked about recycling.

Western Pennsylvania Water CoGregg McKelvey

Date : 1/5/88

Some people are not honoring the water use restrictions. They can and will be fined or even jailed if they fail to do so

The Coalition for Senic BeautyJohn Miller

Date : 4/1/87

The number of billboards is increasing in rural areas as well as in some urban areas. The proposed moratorium on all new billboards under consideration by the city council should be adopted

Western Pennsylvania ConservatoryKeith McGough

Date : 11/7/91

Discussed different ideas he had for beautifying Pittsburgh. Believes that we should place more focus on the natural areas.

Environment

Group Against Smog and Pollution
